

BAUMBART MARGERITE medium - Self-adhesive translucent

Artikel Nr. BMBMAR0055SKTRW

The experience of a luminous mountain forest, brought into interior spaces - all possible, with this unique natural surface. Lichen is a bio-indicator for clean, pure air. Crafted into this surface on strong self-adhesive foil, it creates beautiful light effects, together with playfully arranged marguerites. Perfect for applications on glass or other surfaces.

- pure, clean air in interior spaces, thanks to the air-filtering properties of lichen
- holistic interior design with earthy, natural colours and marguerites
- the translucent self-adhesive foil is part of the design

Grey lichen and approx. 8 marguerites/m² on a translucent self-adhesive backing - creates a beautiful effect when put in front of a light source or on glass.
